PRESIDENT OF BUSCH SYSTEMS AWARDED WITH ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR

Craig Busch, President of Busch Systems International Inc. has been awarded the Arch Brown Entrepreneur of the Year for 2004 in the City of Barrie, Ontario, Canada. This award recognizes individuals who exemplify the entrepreneurial spirit, have seen great success in areas such as growth, profit record, participation in grant and total quality management programs, and innovative employee relationships.

Craig Busch was chosen as the Entrepreneur of the Year out of a group of 11 diversified nominees across the City of Barrie at the 2004 Bell Business Awards Gala, which was held on November 3rd, 2004 at the Army, Navy & Air Force Club of Barrie. As he accepted this honor, Craig was quoted saying, "There isn't a model or formula for what our company looks like, so we need to innovate in everything we do, from product design and operations through superior marketing and service." He also went on to thank the many customers, partners and employees who have played a critical role in the success of Busch Systems over the past 19 years of business.

Busch Systems specializes in providing recycling container solutions to a wide range of industries from municipal governments to educational systems. Over the last 19 years it has established the corporation not only as a manufacturer of more than 170 products, but also as a solution provider to multi-level programs focused on waste reduction through recycling and composting.

Busch Systems' product line includes everything from Curbside Bins and Office Recycling to Document Destruction Carts & Consoles and Centralized Recycling Containers. Busch Systems also offers a full line of Composting Containers, Promotional Items and Educational Tools.
